An examination of the ancient orthography of the Jews, and of the original state of the text of the Hebrew Bible ... By Charles William Wall ... London, Whittaker and co.; etc., etc., 1855-56.

4 v. plates (part fold.) 20^{cm}.

"The first chapter alone of this volume has an immediate reference to the Bible. The discussions which come after, about various kinds of ancient writing, more especially about the cuneiform kinds ... leave no room here for the continuation of my principal subject. I shall, therefore, confine myself solely to proofs of the reality and value of my discovery, respecting the original state of the Hebrew text, in another treatise which I hope to have very soon ready for publication."—Advertisement, pt. iii, vol. i.

"Les hospices de Paris et de Londres." The case of Lord Henry Seymour's will (Wallace v. The attorney-general). Reported by Frederick Waymouth Gibbs ... London, Stevens and Haynes, 1877.

France ... was the country to whose courts belonged the principal administration of his estate, and his will was brought before the Court of chancery here by Mr. Wallace ... in aid of the French administration. The universal legacy gave rise to two questions ... 1st, what was the extent, topographical, of the word 'Londres' as used by the testator; and 2ndly, what institutions were included within the description, 'les hospices de Londres' ... p. 1-2.

The Maids tragedy altered. With some other pieces.
By Edmund Waller, esq; Not before printed in the several editions of his poems. London, Printed for Jacob Tonson, 1690.

3 p. l., 3-100 p. 17^m.

"Most of the following pieces, being unfinished, were never intended to be published; but that a person, who had borrowed a manuscript copy of them, took upon him to print them. The copy from which they were printed, was very imperfect; and there being some errors left to suppress them, it was thought fit to suffer them to be more correctly printed from the last and truest copies."—Prefatory note.
